

My name is _____ and I'm an alcoholic. Please help me open this meeting with the Serenity Prayer.

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference.

Welcome to the _____ meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous.

This is an open or closed meeting of AA Anonymous and anyone may attend.

I've asked _____ to read How It Works.

I've asked _____ to read the Daily Reflections.

Before I introduce the topic, does anyone have any problems, questions or ideas relevant to their sobriety that they would like to hear discussed today?

[Chairperson introduces the topic, then reads the following]

A few things to keep in mind:

1. To limit background noise, please mute yourself when you are not sharing. Don't be offended if the host does this for you.
2. If you want to see everyone's video, and not just the person who is speaking, click the 9 squares at the top right corner of your screen.

[Open the meeting]

That's all the time we have for today. Thank you everyone for being here. According to our 7th tradition, AA is self-supporting through its own contributions. Please check www.ashevilleaa.org for updated online meetings. You can also find and submit updates there regarding the status of in-person and virtual meetings.

Also, please sign up to chair a meeting in the chat. We meet on (days) at (times). Just put your name and the desired day. Get here a few minutes early to find readers. Readings and script are linked in the chat. The room opens at (time).

Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all of our traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities. Please remember, who you see here, what you hear here, when you leave here, let it stay here.

I've asked _____ to read the 9th Step Promises.

After a moment of silence for the alcoholic suffering inside and outside the rooms, we will close with the Prayer (leaders choice).
